Who are we

Who is providing this notice? Transamerica Financial Advisors, Inc.

What we do

How does TFA protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
TFA maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

How does TFA collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or enter into an investment advisory contract
- Apply for insurance
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account or provide account information
- Seek advice about your investments
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio

We collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Other important information

This notice applies to individual consumers who are customers or former customers of TFA. This notice replaces all previous notices of our consumer privacy policy, and may be amended at any time. We will keep you informed of changes or amendments as required by law.

If you close your account and transfer your account to another firm, in the process of transferring your investments we may share your information with the new broker-dealer or custodian that you or your representative selects. Unless otherwise restricted by your representative's contract with TFA, if the representative servicing your account leaves us, the representative may be permitted to retain copies of your nonpublic personal information so that he or she can assist with the transfer of your account and continue to serve you at a new firm. When your representative associates with a new firm, the representative's continuing use of such information becomes subject to the new firm's privacy policy.

If your representative leaves our firm, or if you decide to close your TFA account and transfer to another firm with your representative, and you do not want us to share your nonpublic personal information (other than as permitted by law) with the representative or the new firm, you may contact us by calling: (727) 299-1476.

If your primary address is in a state that requires your affirmative consent to share your personal information with a new firm, then you must give your written consent before we will allow your representative to take any of your personal information to the new firm.

If any of your accounts with us have a Vermont mailing address, TFA will automatically treat those accounts as if you elected not to share information about your creditworthiness and not to receive marketing from our affiliates; we will also not obtain consumer credit reports about you without your consent. If any of your accounts with us have a California, North Dakota, or Vermont mailing address, TFA will automatically not include those accounts in any joint marketing activities with nonaffiliated financial companies.
